Countdown 'til Daddy/Mommy Comes Home

by Kristin Ayyar

Contando los días hasta que llegue papá/mamá

escrito por Kristin Ayyar, traducción de Gabriella Aldeman

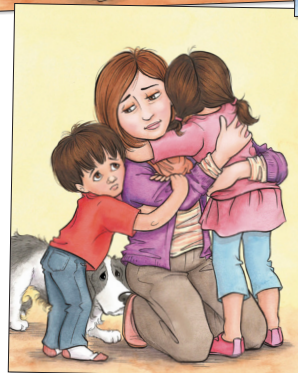

A young child waits for his parent to come home from a trip. To make their time apart easier, his family creates rituals to stay connected and count down the days 'til homecoming.

Includes a story, countdown ideas, and discussion questions to help parents and kids talk about their experiences.

Great for military kids who have a parent deployed or for kids whose parent is a frequent business traveler.

Available in Daddy and Mommy editions, in English and Spanish.
