

What does home mean to you?

United Through Reading
2026 Book for the Military Child

Sometimes a big move helps you discover your own special meaning of home.

In Home Moves With Me, a child moves to a new house with their family. Each step of the journey is a gentle reminder that home is more than a place. Home is family and the memories created along the way.

Told in lyrical prose, Home Moves With Me features mixed media illustrations that invite the reader to experience the story from the main character's point of view. Details in the art—dragons, photo memories, a playful dog—offer readers fun and meaningful themes and substories to discover.

Home Moves With Me

979-8-88752-035-3 (ENG-PB)

979-8-88752-037-7(ENG-ebk)

Retail Publication: June 9, 2026

Paperback: $15.95 each

Ebook: $9.99 each

Mi hogar se muda conmigo

979-8-88752-036-0 (SPA-PB)

979-8-88752-038-4(SPA-ebk)

Picture Book: Moving/Relocation

8.5" x 8.5" • 32 pages • Ages 4+

Case=80 books • Bulk pack=320

Organizations: Buy books in bulk for your program.

<https://MilitaryFamilyBooks.com/Home>

Service members: Use the UTR app to record reading to your child and request a book for home.

<https://UTR.org/app>

United Through Reading's
Book for the Military Child initiative unites military families around a shared reading experience.
One book is featured annually.

Elva Resa Publishing

Quality resources by, for, and about military families

8362 Tamarack Vlg Ste 119-106, St Paul MN 55125

Orders@ElvaResa.com • +1 651-357-8770

Distribution by Military Family Books

<https://ElvaResa.com>

@ElvaResaPublishing

/company/ElvaResaPublishing

<https://MilitaryFamilyBooks.com>

@MilitaryFamilyBooks

/company/MilitaryFamilyBooks

translator

author

artist

Gabriella Aldeman is an award-winning Panamanian American author and translator and Elva Resa's senior Spanish editor.

Kathy Feedham Raggio grew up a military kid, married a service member, and raised their three kids through eight military moves.

Quinette Cook is an award-winning traditional artist. She also illustrated Military Life: Stories and Poems for Children.